

Academic Affairs/Academic Senate Fall 2025 Retreat: “Why U.: Rebooting Engagement at CSUF”

Fullerton Marriott Hotel, Grand Ballroom
October 31, 2025 ~ 8:00AM to 1:00PM

8:00-8:30	Continental Breakfast
8:30-8:40	Introduction: Matthew Jarvis, Academic Senate Chair
8:40-9:00	Welcome: President Ronald S. Rochon
<hr/>
9:00-9:15	Discussion 1: Who are we as a University? – Su Swarat
9:15-9:45	Group Discussion: Choose a table focused on one of the university values <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Focusing on one of the 6 university values, what does it mean and how can we advance it within the current context?</li><li>2. From the lens of the values, who we are as a University?</li></ol>
9:45-10:15	Share Out & Open Discussion – Kate Bono
<hr/>
10:15-10:30	Coffee Break
<hr/>
10:30-10:45	Discussion 2: How can we foster engagement? – Alexandro Gradilla
10:45-11:15	Group Discussion: Choose a table focused on student or faculty/staff engagement <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Focusing on either the students or the faculty/staff, given what we have said about who we are, how do we engage students (or faculty/staff) more effectively? What might we need to do differently?</li><li>2. List ways in which students (or faculty/staff) are disengaged; Pick at least one of those issues to come up with concrete/actionable solutions.</li></ol>
11:15-11:45	Share Out & Open Discussion – Kate Bono
<hr/>
11:45-12:00	Closing Remarks: Provost Amir Dabirian
12:00-1:00	Buffet Lunch